Notes from Good Strategy, bad Strategy and the Crux - Podcast with Lenny adn Rummelt

Source²

Strategy is about how to overcome high stakes challenges One needs to differentiate between Strategy and analytical tools for solving or analyzing problems. E.g 7 Powers framework or Wardley Maps are such tools for deriving a strategy, but they are not the strategy!

Instead on strategy one might call it Action Agenda

The Kernel

Diagnose the situation

- What is going on?
- Hypotheses of what is going on & how things are connected ... we have that problem
- Use any of the strategy tools for that!
